GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

One hundred and twenty-four owners or nominators have entered horses to run. The three stakes for two-year-old fillies have 206 and the seven other races for two-year-olds 538 entries, while the races for the older division have filled proportionately as well. The two cross-country fixtures received fifty-seven nominations. The summarized list follows:

Punchestown Steeplechase, full course, 32; Chantilly Hurdle Race, 1 1-2 miles, 25. Total, 57. Average, 28 1-2.

Here is a horse yarn told at New Orleans by Harry White which has the merit of being true: "Some seven years ago Chris Smith took from the Messrs. Morris, out of a selling race, at Sheepshead Bay, a mare named Hypatica, out of Maggie B. B., the dam of the famous racehorse and sire, Iroquois, the amount paid for her being $4,500. Some time subsequently Theodore Winters, the millionaire Montana turfman, who was wont to take his vacation from the slope by coming to St. Paul and Chicago to see his horses, which he had bred race, saw Hypatica, and impressed with her individuality and her royal breeding, he at once entered into negotiations with Smith for the mare. Smith had at different times previously bought from the Montana breeder Callie Ferguson, Noretta, Dollie McCone and the peerless Yo Tambien. As Hypatica had broken down, her owner turned her over to Mr. Winters with the understanding that she was to be bred to El Rio Rey on shares. I drew up the contract and witnessed it, one of the provisions being that the parties to it were to share equally the expense of shipping the mare west and bringing her back to Chicago again in the event that for any reason she should be returned. Another proviso was that the foals, if any should be sold, the proceeds to be divided equally between the parties. The first foal was a chestnut colt. In the meantime Smith had become indebted to Sol Sharp, the Cincinnati poolroom man, since deceased, and by way of settlement he had hypothecated his interest in the foal. Mr. Sharp afterwards bought Mr. Winters' interest in the youngster and named him after the place in which he had made his money—Covington, Ky. Such is the story of the horse which won here a few days ago at odds of 100 to 1, and a couple of days later finished second with 30 to 1 against his chances—one of the most royally bred horses at this track.

Acting through L. P. Tarlton as his attorney, E. F. Simms caused the following notice to the parents of jockey T. Burns to be issued last Saturday.

"NEW ORLEANS, January 14, 1899.

"John Burns and Mary Burns, His Wife: You are hereby notified that I will require the services of your son Thomas to exercise my horses, etc., at the track of the New Louisville Jockey Club on and after January 21, 1899, in accordance with the terms and obligations of the contract entered into with you, he being a minor. I demand that he shall report at said track on said date and enter upon the discharge of the duties imposed upon him by the terms of our contract, for the due performance of which you, for a valuable consideration, obligated him and ourselves. E. F. SIMMS."

This is calculated to put the case in tangible shape. In the event that Burns fails to comply with the demand made by Mr. Simms in the notice served upon his parents as above, then the next move on the part of Mr. Simms will be to refer the entire matter to the Executive Committee of the New Louisville Jockey Club, to be acted upon by them or to be referred by them for final action to the Turf Congress.

A Lexington dispatch to the Louisville Courier-Journal says: "The report that the horses here had something like the grip is not considered seriously by the breeders. There have been a few horses sick of colds, as is always the case at this season of the year, but, as far as there being any alarm over this sickness, this is far from true. Nor do the breeders anticipate the large percentage of slipping this season as has been the case for two or three seasons. Last spring many mares lost their foals, as they did also year before last, and this accounts for the shortage in the crop of two-year-olds at this time to a great extent. This probably cuts a larger figure in this direction than the failure to breed mares, although this is one of the principal reasons for said shortage. It is calculated by the best posted breeders that this season's crop of foals will be double that of last spring."

The Coney Island Jockey Club, looking to a perpetuation of its present happy environment, has just consummated a deal by which it has secured about one hundred acres of land around the beautiful Sheepshead Bay track. It should be a matter of congratulation to all turfmen that this arrangement will probably insure the continuance of the old track in the condition as now for several years at least. With the removal of the two or three stables at the lower end of the track beyond the paddock, the project to create a park around the track may very easily be carried out, and the whole wonderfully improved. One of the important features of the acquirement of the additional property is the fact that Sheepshead will have a seven furlong straightaway course. Over this the Flatbush Stakes will most probably be run instead of on the circular track, as heretofore. The alteration in track and surroundings will be made as soon as possible, and visitors to the popular old course may be agreeably surprised this season at its changed appearance.—Morning Telegraph.

Promptly on receipt of intelligence of the favorable action of the Jockey Club in awarding open dates to Saratoga, the list of stakes to be offered there to close March 1, was made public. It is as follows:

For two-year-olds—Congress Handicap, $2,000; Grand Union Stakes, double event, $10,000 and $5,000 each; Pepper Stakes, $3,000; G. H. Mumm & Co. Stakes, $3,000; Worden House Stakes, fillies, $2,000; the Fleischmann Stakes, $5,000 and $300 cup; McGrathiana Stakes, $2,000.

For three-year-olds—Madden Stakes, $1,000 added; Hendrie Stakes, fillies, $750 added; United States, $1,000 added.

For three-year-olds and upward—Spencer Handicap, $1,250 added; Citizen-Merchants' Handicap, $5,000; Saratoga Grand Prize, $5,000.

For all ages—Kearney Stakes, $1,000 added; Beverwyck Steeplechase, $1,000; Kensington Hurdle Handicap, $1,000.

The following stakes for 1900 and 1901 are also announced to close on December 1, 1899:

Saratoga Derby, 1900, three-year-olds, one and one-half miles, $5,000; Carnation, 1900, two-year-old fillies, five furlongs, $5,000; Criterion Stakes, 1900, two-year-olds, six furlongs, $10,000; Grand Prize, 1900, three-year-olds and upward, one and one eighth miles, $10,000; Grand Prize, 1901, three-year-olds and upward, one and one-eighth miles, $20,000.

GEORGE MURPHY REMAINS IN JAIL.

NEW ORLEANS, La., January 17.—George Murphy is still in jail awaiting extradition papers. He denies his guilt but the Mexican consul claims that the National Bank of Mexico has ample evidence to convict him.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Sydney Paget has written to San Francisco parties to negotiate the refusal of the foal of Magnet—Hazel D. The latter is a full sister to Carrie C., the dam of Jean Beraud. Magnet is now at the Burlingame Stock Farm, and fourteen royally bred mares are in foal to him. These are by such famous sires as Hanover, Longfellow, Inverness, Bathampton, Hindoo and others.

News was received here yesterday of the death of the speedy Hermoso, which was bought out of a selling race by Billy Timmons nearly a year ago at Ingleside track. J. A. Gray felt the loss of the Sir Modred colt keenly, but there seemed to be a "hoodoo" on his new owner, for he never won a race for him, nor J. Delong, in whose colors he ran last.—San Francisco Examiner.

Ruinart pulled up very lame at the end of a gallop at Ingleside a few days ago. He had been working in the most satisfactory way possible for some time and his going lame again was a great disappointment to his owners.

C. H. C., Chicago.—There was no show betting on Elsie Bramble in race No. 10325.

EASTERN RACING DATES.

The stewards of the Jockey Club completed the apportionment of racing dates to the various eastern clubs Monday night and turfmen now have the satisfaction of knowing how to plan their campaigns from start to finish of the turf year, so far as the east is concerned. Western owners will be gratified by the consideration shown Saratoga. For the first time in years the famous old track, over which racing on an extended scale was revived in the north after the close of the civil war, is to have such a season of dates free from competition as to assure its restoration to the high degree of importance and prosperity that formerly made it the most popular rallying point for turfmen in this country. From July 26 to August 5 it will have to compete with Brighton Beach, but after that, until its closing day, Friday, August 25, Saratoga will be the only point in the east where racing will be carried on. It is easy to see that this is a condition that will insure the attendance of the leading eastern stables, and no doubt the hot August days will witness some sensational struggles between the horses of the east and the west. For this the Jockey Club is to be commended.

Racing is set to begin over the Bennings track at Washington April 3 and continue two weeks. This is earlier than racing began last year at the National Capital, the opening day then at Bannings having been April 11. Next in order, the Queens County Jockey Club will open at Aqueduct track Monday, April 17, for sixteen days, closing Thursday, May 4. This will allow an interval of one day before the first of the three great racing clubs of New York, the Westchester Jockey Club, begins its spring meeting at Morris Park. As has been the custom in former years, the Metropolitan Handicap, won last year by Bowling Brook, will, no doubt, be the central attraction of the opening day, Saturday, May 6. The meeting at Morris Park comes to a close Thursday, May 25. Saturday, May 27, the Brooklyn Jockey Club meeting opens with all the glories and enthusiasm of Brooklyn Handicap day. The meeting at Gravesend will terminate Thursday, June 15.

On the Saturday following, June 17, racing will commence at the ever popular Sheepshead Bay track. The Coney Island Jockey Club has recently purchased a tract of land adjoining its present enclosure and will use it to add to the beauties and facilities of its already charming course by the sea. The multitude that will assemble there June 17 to see an addition to the illustrious list of Suburban Handicap winners will doubtless note some changes pleasing to the eye and adding to the convenience of horseowners. Following the Sheepshead Bay meeting, which closes July 4, Brighton Beach will open for racing July 5, the meeting there ending August 5. As has already been indicated the sport at Saratoga will begin July 26 and continue to August 25 inclusive. The Saratoga list of stakes is already announced and will be found such as to command the approval and patronage of the leading turfmen of the country.

Saratoga will be the turning point in the eastern campaign and will be followed in orderly succession by the autumn meetings at Sheepshead Bay, Gravesend, Morris Park, Aqueduct, and the windup, as was the start, will be at the Bannings track where the curtain will fall on the last day of the month of November.
